HONORS EVEN IN PUSHBALL FIGHT

Annual Event at Washington and Lee Strenuously Contested.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lexington, Va., September 20.—The pushball fight at Washington and Lee University was called at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon. The experience and age of the Sophs was balanced by five extra men on the freshmen side. Time was shortened because the afternoon was very warm.

In the first rush the freshmen got some advantage, but by desperate struggle the upper class held the ball in neutral territory until time was up. When the referee called the second half both teams went in to score.
